

Customs Inspection

In some cases the customs Automated Selection System (stoplight) may determine, without human intervention, that your belongings and, if applicable, the vehicle on which you were carrying them, will be subject to customs inspection.

This is a simple procedure. We would appreciate your cooperation in order to make it an agile one too. Please follow the instructions of our customs personnel. They must treat you with courtesy and respect while they ask you to open your luggage and proceed with its inspection. Also, they must handle your belongings with care. Remember that all persons entering Mexico are obliged to comply with Mexico's customs provisions.

What can I bring in duty free?

- The items allowed in your personal luggage, according to the length of your trip
- Up to US$50 per person in permitted goods, or its equivalent in other currencies. Passengers traveling with family members (spouse and children) may combine their personal exemptions only when arriving together on the same vehicle. In order to claim this additional exemption passengers must have the corresponding commercial invoices or receipts available

- Beer, alcoholic beverages, manufactured tobacco and motor vehicle fuel (except for the fuel contained in the vehicle's fuel tank) may not be included in this additional exemption

Which items may be included in my personal luggage exempt from duty?

- Suitcases, trunks, and the necessary bags to carry your belongings
- New or used goods for personal use, such as clothing, footwear and personal hygienic products, in reasonable quantities, according to the length of your trip and that they may not be subject to commercialization
- Medications for personal use. In the case of psychotropic substances you must present the corresponding medical prescription
- A photographic camera, a video camera and, if it is the case, its power charger; up to 12 rolls or reels of unused film or videocassettes; photographic printed or filmed material; a cellular telephone; a
