

Temporary vehicle importation

If you live in the United States or in Canada, you can request a temporary vehicle importation permit via Internet. Visit the following websites: www.aduanas.gob.mx, www.banjercito.com.mx and www.serviciosdecalidad.gob.mx

Who can temporarily import a vehicle?

- Foreigners with immigrant financiers' migratory status or non-immigrants, except refugees and political refugees
- Mexican nationals with legal residence abroad or that prove to be working, for more than one year, by means of official documentation

Where can the permit be acquired?

- At the Mexican Consulates in Albuquerque, Austin, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Houston, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Francisco and St Paul. This step can be carried out at these Mexican Consulates six months in advance

- Via Internet, www.aduanas.gob.mx or www.banjercito.com.mx
- At Banjercito offices (CIITEV Modules) located at the Mexican border
- You can do this at the internet: www.banjercito.com.mx, and within the next 20 working days you will receive the permit and the sticker at your home. This is an easier and faster way of obtaining your permit

How much does it cost and how do I pay?

- The procedure via internet costs US$45 plus tax, shipping included.
- The procedure in Mexican Consulates costs US$36 plus tax. The payment should be made with international credit or debit cards in the importers name.
- At the border, US$27 plus tax, with international credit or debit cards issued abroad and in the importers name
- If you don't have credit or debit cards, a cash deposit of US$200 to US$400, depending on the year and model of the vehicle. The deposit will be returned
